You'll then be able to embed it into your "References" Toolbar. Once you've launched SmartCite for the first time, you'll be prompted to log in to your account. You'll instantly see your library appear in the right-side panel.

STEP 2. FIND PAPERS

How to cite papers from PubMed, Google Scholar, and journal websites

1. Download articles directly from your web browser. Install the extensions for your preferred browsers: Chrome, Firefox, Safari, and Edge. Click here to install.
2. Find papers on PubMed, Google Scholar, Dimensions, and journal websites and add them in your library of Papers.

The screenshot shows the PubMed.gov website interface. At the top, there is a COVID-19 information banner with links to CDC, NIH, NCBI, and HHS resources. Below this is the NIH National Library of Medicine logo and a 'Log in' button. The main search area features the PubMed.gov logo, a search bar containing the text 'Clinicoradiological characteristics of cerebral air embolism.', and a 'Search' button. Below the search bar are links for 'Advanced', 'Create alert', and 'Create RSS', along with a 'User Guide' link. The search results section shows 'Found 1 result for Clinicoradiological characteristics of cerebral air embolism.' with buttons for 'Save', 'Email', 'Send to', and 'Display options'. The result details include 'Case Reports > Cerebrovasc Dis. 2007;23(5-6):459-62. doi: 10.1159/000101749.' and 'Epub 2007 Apr 13.'. The article title 'Clinicoradiological characteristics of cerebral air embolism' is prominently displayed. On the right side, there are 'FULL TEXT LINKS' for 'Karger' and 'Final Version', and an 'ACTIONS' section. On the left side, there is a 'Full-text Access' icon and a 'Get PDF' button. A red box highlights the 'Add to Library' button at the bottom left.

STEP 3. CITE PAPERS

How to apply JNC citation style

1. Download the JNC style from the journal homepage and upload the file at Options.

The image displays two screenshots of the Microsoft Word interface, specifically the SmartCite add-in, demonstrating the process of uploading a citation style.

Top Screenshot: The SmartCite panel is open, showing the 'OPTIONS' tab selected. The 'Upload style' button is highlighted with a red box. A red arrow points from this button to the 'Upload style' button in the bottom screenshot.

Bottom Screenshot: The SmartCite panel shows a green notification box stating "Style has been successfully uploaded." Below this, the 'Uploaded styles' section is highlighted with a red box, showing the "Journal of Neurocritical Care" style.

2. Insert the bibliography you added in Papers library in the right-side panel.

Microsoft Word interface showing the SmartCite panel on the right side. The main document text reads: "This case indicates that MRI is a useful modality in diagnosing cerebral air embolism by documenting air emboli, hyperacute infarcts, and disruption of the blood-brain barrier".
